xii Anti-Americanism in Europe general attitude toward business and its largely anomalous standing in the world. In terms of attitudes toward business, it seems that it is Europe, not the United States, that is out of step. Anti-Americanism in Europe, in short, is a problem that emerges from European culture and it will be with us for long time.

not anti-Americanism, but anti-Bushism. Anti-Bushism is an undeniable fact of European life, as it is a fact of American life - read the opinion pages of the New York Times to get a daily whiff of it. Anti-Americanism must also be distinguished from "policy anti-Americanism," that is opposition to particular American policies.
