

basics in linguistics phonology pdf

In Italian there is no phonemic distinction between long and short vowels, but vowels in stressed open syllables, unless word-final, are long at the end of the intonational phrase (including isolated words) or when emphasized. Adjacent identical vowels found at morpheme boundaries are not resyllabified, but pronounced separately ("quickly rearticulated"), and they might be reduced to a single ...

I want to know: what's the best way to correct students when they make a mistake, especially when they are speaking? Introduction. Everyone makes mistakes, even speakers using their own language when they are hurried, “lost for words”™, or forced into inappropriate language by a difficult or unusual situation.

Classroom management: Speaking correction techniques

1' People often ask: How long will it take me to become proficient in language X? This question is impossible to answer because a lot depends on a person's language learning ability, motivation, learning environment, intensity of instruction, and prior experience in learning foreign languages.
