In these pages, laymen will find themselves and their condition of life the center of attention at all times. Consequently they will not find a specifically spiritual vocabulary or an alien pious rhetoric. They will not find a long list of prayers, practices and penances. They will not find a list of things to be given up.

With the Israelites there was the Feast of the Passover as a new beginning in the first month of their sacred calendar, the month of Abib (Exo. 12:1-2). "Abib" means sprouting or budding. It denotes a new beginning of life. So from this we can see the spiritual significance of a new beginning is for sprouting, for growing.
