Joke template. This form of meta-joke is a sarcastic jab at the endlessly refitting of joke forms, often by professional jokers, to different circumstances or characters without a significant innovation in the humor. "Three people of different nationalities walk into a bar. Two of them say something smart, and the third one makes a mockery of his fellow countrymen by acting stupid."

Humour (British English), also known as humor (American English; see spelling differences) is the tendency of experiences to provoke laughter and provide amusement. The term derives from the humoral medicine of the ancient Greeks, which taught that the balance of fluids in the human body, known as humours (Latin: humor, "body fluid"), controlled human health and emotion.
